

Daily Observation record

(To be done for infants whose mothers are on psychotropics while breast feeding)

Date: / / If Present N If Normal

dd / mm / yr

Alertness
Temperature
Respiratory rate
Muscle tone
Abdominal colic
Diarrhea
Vomiting
Spells of Cyanosis
Urinary retention
Constipation
Skin rashes
Difficulty in sucking
Lethargy
Extra pyramidal symptoms
Sedation
Seizures
Myoclonic Jerks
Excessive Crying
Jaundice																										